

SENR Career Resilience Resources

ABOUT THIS RESOURCE: This list was generated from a combined effort of SENR Career Service, the Environmental Professionals Network, and participants in the Building Career Resilience webinar on April 23rd, 2020. This document is not comprehensive and offers only a sampling of tools to help support career development for students and professionals during this time of uncertainty. Opinions and advice shared through the resources in this document belong to the individual page creators and are not necessarily endorsed by the School of Environment and Natural Resources.

Sample List of Job Boards for Virtual Jobs and Companies Still Hiring:

- Texas A&M Department of Fisheries & Wildlife job board: <https://wfscjobs.tamu.edu/job-board/>
 - This job board is updated almost daily, with a range of positions in the environmental field. Positions include internships, full time positions, and graduate school assistantships. Each position will have individual instructions for their applications.
- Student Conservation Association: <https://www.thesca.org/serve/positions>
 - The SCA costs $25 to join and the application is a bit lengthy, but offers a wide variety of internships. You only have to fill out the application once, and then you can use it to apply to up to 20 jobs at a time.
 - Tip: based on your skills and preferences, SCA will give you a “fit” match from 0-100%.
- Conservation Job Board: <https://www.conservationjobboard.com/>
 - Conservation Job Board is also updated frequently, and you can use their left side menu to search by category. Example categories include: fisheries, forestry, wildlife, sustainability, policy and law, and environmental education.
 - Tip: You can sign up for their e-mail list to receive alerts when new jobs are posted.
- Occupation Wild: <https://www.occupationwild.com/>
 - Occupation Wild not only has their own job board for the outdoor and adventure industries, but also a great podcast and blog for those working in an outdoor field. They offer many trip leading jobs, and you can search by season.
 - Tip: You can sign up for their e-mail list to receive alerts when new jobs are posted.
- USAJobs: <https://www.usajobs.gov/>
 - USAJobs is where all federal positions are posted. You can search by agency, position title, and location.
 - Tip: when searching for a job, select “Open to the Public” on the right side menu. You can also select open to students or recent graduates.
- EcoJobs: <http://www.ecojobs.com/index.php>
 - Environmental Career Opportunities or “ECO” jobs is also frequently updated and allows you to search by field. Fields include Renewable Energy & Green Jobs, Environmental Law & Policy Jobs, Natural Resources & Conservation, and many more.
- Green Job Boards: <http://greencollarblog.org/green-job-boards/>
- Virtual, Micro-Internships Posted Through Parker Dewey: <https://www.parkerdewey.com/example-projects>
- Check out the job board Good Food Jobs, where permanent and temporary positions are still being posted: <https://www.goodfoodjobs.com/search.html#everywhere=1> (Links to an external site.)
- Updated list of companies that are still hiring. Note that they aren't necessarily ENR-related: <https://coda.io/@kenny/companies-still-hiring>
- Ohio State students and alumni, remember to check Handshake for jobs, virtual events, and other opportunities

Social Media:

- Engage with professional societies, agencies, and NGOs within your field by following them on social media
- Stay in touch with university resources and news. Here are just a few accounts to follow:
 - Instagram: @osucfaes, @cfaescareers, @enrbuckeyes for student spotlights
 - Twitter: @OSUEnvironment and @CFAES_OSU
 - Facebook: The Ohio State University School of Environment and Natural Resources (@osusenr), Ohio State – College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences (@OSUFoodAgEnv)

SENR Career Resilience Resources

Platforms:

- Handshake: <https://handshake.osu.edu/>
 - Handshake can be used to have your resume reviewed, apply for jobs, register for career fairs and other career development events, and connect with employers and fellow students
- LinkedIn
 - LinkedIn can be used as an extension of your resume, and is one of the most popular networking resources. You can share your accomplishments, gather endorsements, apply for jobs, and connect with other professionals.
 - Follow Ohio State's page, SENR's page, and join SENR's Career Development Group.
- AlumniFire: <https://osu.alumnifire.com/>
 - AlumniFire is specifically for connecting with Ohio State alumni .
- SENR Website: <https://senr.osu.edu/undergraduate/career-services/alumni-career-spotlights>
 - See what some of our alumni are up to and connect with them on LinkedIn to ask about their current positions.

Blogs and other Online Forums:

- North American Association for Environmental Education (NAAEE): <https://naaee.org/eeepro/blog>
 - NAAEE has new blog posts several times a week on topics related to environmental education, environmental professionals and other helpful resources
 - NAAEE also has its own Environmental Education job board: <https://naaee.org/news/eejobs>
- Green Collar Blog: <http://greencollarblog.org/>
 - This blog posts about featured green jobs, professional development opportunities, and recently made a post specifically for job seekers during COVID-19: <http://greencollarblog.org/job-seeker-resources-covid-19/>
 - Job board
- Occupation Wild: <https://www.occupationwild.com/>
 - In addition to their job board, Occupation Wild also has a podcast and blog with topics such as: working in the outdoor field, job searching during COVID-19, and sustainable travel.

Webinars and Other Virtual Opportunities for Professional and Community Engagement:

- SENR Capstone's Earth Day virtual resources: <https://u.osu.edu/capstoneearthday/resource-library/>
- Frequent webinars hosted by USAJobs: <https://www.usajobs.gov/Notification/Events/>
 - Webinars include writing a federal resume, navigating USA Jobs and interviewing for federal jobs
- Thinking of growing your own food? Find numerous resources, including fact sheets, blog posts, videos, and webinars from OSU Extension at <https://u.osu.edu/growingfranklin/>
- Take the 5-7 minute survey to give your input about future workplace setting arrangements during the pandemic: https://harvard.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_3DcR6OHe7LJngb3?utm_campaign=umar_faculty-staff-newsletter_fy20_onsite%20today%2020200421&utm_medium=email&utm_source=EOACLK
- LinkedIn Coronavirus Resource Hub: <https://news.linkedin.com/coronavirus-resource-hub>
- National Geographic provides a library of webinars to help support continued learning and exploration: <https://webinars.eltnl.com/>

Local Resources:

- Both essential businesses and current job seekers can visit Coronavirus.Ohio.gov/JobSearch (Links to an external site.) to post and search.
- Employ Columbus Now has a job board of companies still hiring: <https://www.employcolumbusnow.com/>
- Support our local businesses! Support Columbus Eats has a list of local restaurants still doing orders or selling gift cards: <https://www.supportcolumbuseats.com/>
- ColumbusHelper.org emergency food, clothing, furniture, and disaster services, health care services, and housing and utility assistance: <https://www.columbushelper.org/>
- Provide your input about the future of the Olentangy River: <https://www.olentangyvisionplan.com/>

