

Dan was raised on a dairy and maple syrup producing farm in Northwest Knox County. In 2016 his farm received the distinction of a Sesquicentennial Farm. He's a fourth generation sugar maker helping produce maple syrup from the trees on our farm for over 55 years. He's been a director for the Ohio Maple Producers Association for seven years currently serving as President. He received a BS in Agronomy from Iowa State University in 1977.