

Heather Doherty is the Central Ohio Scenic River Manager for the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Parks and Watercraft. She has worked in river conservation and environmental education for twenty years. Prior to joining ODNR, she directed the Kenyon College Brown Family Environmental Center, and as a Watershed Coordinator for the Friends of Alum Creek & Tributaries. Heather received her B. A. in Biology from Kenyon College.