

Katie Fornadel is a Supply Planning Analyst at Patagonia, where the mission is to build the best product, cause no unnecessary harm, and use business to inspire and implement solutions to the environmental crisis. Involvement in environmental causes at Ohio State, including membership in Net Impact, led to a career in supply chain with a focus on social and environmental responsibility.

She holds a Bachelor's degree in Linguistics from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, and is a 2015 alumna of the Fisher College of Business MBA program
