

Sarah Moore, MBA, is a Retail Project Manager and Sustainability Strategist at Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams. Sarah joined Team Jeni's in 2017 to advance the expansion of retail shops across the country and promote internal sustainability initiatives. Prior to ice cream, Sarah supported local seafood supply chains in Hawaii with the nonprofit organization Conservation International. She is a certified Sustainability Associate from the International Society of Sustainability Professionals. In 2015, Sarah earned her BS from OSU's School of Environment and Natural Resources, and the following year earned her MBA with a specialization in Sustainable Supply Chains from Chatham University. Utilizing her education, Sarah strives to promote a sustainable approach to business growth.
